SCHEDULED WASTES MANAGEMENT

5 MARCH 2024 , Tuesday

9AM – 5PM

BANGI RESORT HOTEL

Environmental Quality (Scheduled Wastes) Regulations 2005 (Amendment 2007) stated that, every waste generator shall ensure that all his employees involved in the identification, handling, labeling, transportation, storage and spillage or discharge response of scheduled waste are trained and competent with the knowledge on the management of scheduled waste, as required under the law in order to ensure that the generated scheduled wastes are properly managed, in compliance to legal requirements with minimal environmental impacts.

TRAINER'S PROFILE

Ching Yuan Kong (Mr.)

Ex- DOE Officer, Certified Environmental Professional in Scheduled Waste Management
(CePSWaM)

Mr. Ching Yuan Kong has more than 18 years of practical experience in the field of environmental management. He holds a Bsc. in Environmental Science from University Malaysia Sabah in 2014 and started off as an Environmental Control Officer for the Department of Environment Malaysia. As an environmental control officer, he involved in the enforcement of Environmental Quality Act & related Regulations which needed him to be a law enforcer and also as a prosecuting officer at the same time.

He has since left after 8 years and joined a multinational oil and gas company where he was an environmental coordinator. This role needed him to be the site environmental adviser and involved in the daily environmental management activities. Currently he is an Environmental Protection Expert in a Multinational Petrochemical company which need him to involved in greenhouse gas management, energy, water protection, waste management and soil & groundwater remediation etc.

Ching has vast hands-on experience in environmental management through his exposure while working as a law enforcer and in the industries. Not only a certified competent person for Scheduled Waste management in Malaysia, he also holds various environmental competency recognized in Malaysia and overseas.
